

COUNTY CONSERVATION AIDS

Authorization: s. 23.09 (12), Wis. Stats., ch. NR 50, Wis. Admin. Code

Budget: 2003-2004 Fiscal Year = $0
2004-2005 Fiscal Year = $150,000

Objective: Carry out fish or wildlife management projects.

Eligibility: Counties or recognized Indian tribes.

Level of Assistance: 50% of eligible activities.

Priorities: Projects that enhance fish and wildlife habitat or fishing and hunting opportunities.

Eligible Types of Projects: Projects related to providing improved fish or wildlife habitat or projects related to hunter/angler facilities.

Applications: Contact appropriate DNR regional Community Service Specialist.

History: The County Conservation Aid Program was created to assist Wisconsin counties in the improvement of the fish and game resources. The fund was established by the Wisconsin Legislature in 1965 as an alternative to highly questionable bounty payment program on coyote, foxes and bobcats.

Contact: Refer to DNR regional Community Service Specialists; see page 95-98.

Website: None at this time.